PADRE PAUL'S PONDERINGS

The Past Teaches Us How to Live for the Future

I've always loved history, because it teaches us so much about where we've been but also how to learn from the past to get to the future.

With respect to those who have gone before us, if you think about it, there is so much to be inspired about. Just look through the history of our own parish.

As people moved into the area, it goes without saying a number of these people were Catholic. So in April of 1855, the first Catholic Mass in the area was held in Hastings, in a home near Lakeville. Saint Patrick's of Inver Grove Heights was formed in 1856, and in 1858 an area priest, Fr. Felix Tissot, offered Mass in Rosemount in a home, which became known as the Rosemount Mission. By the 1860s, various Masses were being held in the area, and as the decade wore on, the Rosemount Mission would become the parish of Saint Joseph's.

The Lakeville and Rosemount mission was combined by Fr. Anatole Oster, a German priest, in 1868. The location was to be the intersection of Dodd Road and the future Pilot Knob Road and Town Line Road. The land was purchased from a family, Thomas and Mary Hyland for $100. The church was financed by votes from mission members to be repaid with 10% interest. $2360 was raised toward construction. On Sunday, August 30, 1868, the church was dedicated to Saint Joseph and a Mass was said on a temporary altar.

What's neat about the first parish is how parishioners literally built it. Most workers listed were parishioners. Parishioners also pitched in for lightning rods to protect the church, and paid for the Saint Joseph statue. By July 1870, the church was ready, financed and built largely by the people of God here in Rosemount. The only drawback was getting there, as it was halfway between Rosemount and Lakeville, though by 1876 All Saints would be built in Lakeville or Fairfield as it was known back then.

In 1880, a major storm destroyed the church. So the parish moved to the Temperance Hall (now the sight of Carbone's, a bar), while the second church was built in town. On September 15, 1888, the first festival was held at the Temperance Hall, and it wasn't long before the parish started having card parties as well as fundraisers, and bazaars.

As time went on, the parish again needed to grow. People, knowing this, wanted to help. For instance Parishioner James Tierney died on January 15, 1907 at the age of 84 years. When James died he left an estate worth about $50,000. Among his public bequests was $1000 to the new Cathedral in St. Paul and $10,000 to aid in building a new Catholic Church in Rosemount. With parishioners helping, and fundraising, over the next two decades that fund grew $35,000 by 1922. The total cost though would be north of $60,000; $61,972 to be exact. Adding on the heating and the plumbing and electrical work and it was $81,669. The cornerstone was laid in 1924, the first Mass on Christmas Eve, and the parish dedicated in May of 1925. Parishioners paid for the altar as a gift, $1500. In the years that followed, there were numerous fundraisers to support the church. They included dinners, bake sales, ice cream socials, and a series of card parties. The parish also held an annual bazaar. A chicken supper was served beginning at 5:30 p.m. until everyone was served. The dinner was priced at 50 cents a plate for adults and 25 cents for children.

Speaking of children, as the parish grew, in the 1950s it was decided that the time was right for a school. A building committee approved the school, and Fr. James Furey left the parish to find a staff for it asking for prayers. They were answered when he returned with the Sisters of Saint Agnes. Again, parishioners stepped up by helping to build the school. Classes began in the fall of 1954. It was enlarged in 1957, costing $113,000. Eventually in the 60s, a convent was built. In the 70s, new heating and electrical systems along with redecorating were $135,000. By the late 1990s, it was determined a new parish would probably need to be built because the population kept growing.

That beautiful sanctuary is where we gather today for Mass. Ground broke after Mass offered by Bishop Richard Pates in July of 2002, and on October 5, 2003, our first Mass took place following a procession from the old to the new church. Five years down the road, our school was added onto our campus.

Through the decades our history shows that time and time again, people have taken ownership of their parish through a spirit of generosity.

This weekend, we celebrate that history with the release of the history of our parish.

At the 8:30 a.m. Mass today, we'll be honoring all who helped make our history book, "Looking to our Future Through the Windows of our Past" a reality. Having been given an advanced copy, I've found the quality of the production and detail of research to be incredible. The book was truly a labor of love, and it teaches us so much about the history of our parish. I know you'll find it inspiring to read about the incredible sacrifices made by so many, and year by year find a similar theme: how people demonstrated time and time again a love for their parish and sacrificed so much to make Saint Joe's a vibrant and thriving parish that brought people closer to God and closer together as the people of God. The book really inspires us to look at all that those who were in this parish have done to make our parish thrive, and to learn from them about how to continue to build and grow our parish as we love and serve God and one another.

I'd like to personally thank Mr. & Mrs. John and Ann Loch, Mr. & Mrs. Jerry and Kate Mattson and Mary Kay Amberg for their tireless research and assistance for the Celebration Book. A big "thank you" as well to all the members of the 150th Anniversary Committee who also contributed to help bring this project to fruition. For a complete list of our Contributors and Resources, please reference page 155 of the 150th Celebration book.

Finally, I would like to thank you, our parishioners, for continuing to make history for all you do in support of your parish. As I've said, it's such an honor to be part of a warm and welcoming parish family where people sacrifice and give so much and live out their faith day in and day out. Truly people don't just look to our history as stories to remember, but look to those stories as ways to guide us into the future by giving selflessly of our time, talent and treasure.

Have a blessed week, ~ Fr. Paul

20 Ministries. One Faith. UNIFIED WE RISE 2019

What does your faith mean to you? Faith is something so personal that words cannot easily explain it. Faith can bring peace amidst turmoil, and true joy even in difficult circumstances. As Catholic, we are called to freely live out our faith and to give back to others as Christ has poured Himself out for us.

The Catholic Services Appeal Foundation (CSAF) is an independent non-profit focused solely on supporting 20 designated outreach ministries and nothing else. By partnering with the CSAF, you help those in need: the hungry, the orphan, the sick, suffering, dying and grieving. You assist in ministering to the imprisoned, evangelizing Catholic youth and college students, and strengthening families. You enable the sacraments to be provided to Catholics young and old alike.

To join in the work of the CSAF, simply connect via your mobile device to csafspm.org*, or complete a paper pledge form and drop it in the collection basket or mail it directly to the Foundation's office in Plymouth, MN. Thank you for responding to the Gospel's call to serve the poor, support life, strengthen faith and transform lives by God's grace- United We Rise!*

Private Adoration Part 1

In addition to these times of public adoration, we can each- as often as possible according to our personal schedules and circumstances- draw great nourishment from times of private adoration.

The most important thing to realize about making a private Holy Hour is that you don't have to do anything. You don't have to say any particular prayers, or read, or sing, or anything else. All you have to do is be present to the One who is present to you. Certainly, bodily presence is the first step-at times that is all we are capable of-but we should also try to be present with our hearts. This means a loving awareness of who is present. Many times, we need to be silently present-not analyzing, thinking or saying prayers with our lips, " Be still and know that I am God" Ps 46

Even a few short moments of this silent presence to the Lord is a precious treasure, for it is in this silence that the Lord speaks to us. As we sit in silence before the Lord, we are irradiated by His Eucharistic presence. We all need "radiation therapy"- and to receive it we only need to be present, just as in sun bathing we only need to be present to the ultra-violet radiation of the sun.

An Important Message from the Archdiocese of St Paul and Minneapolis

We are sending the following notice so that if you receive a letter from Image-I-Nation Technologies (INT), you know that it is authentic.

The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis learned Thursday night that hackers outside of the United States compromised an Image-I-Nation Technologies (INT) database that contained personal information on some employees and volunteers in the Archdiocese. INT, a vendor used by the company that conducts our background checks advised that it is sending notifications to all persons whose information may have been accessed. We will continue to follow up with INT and our vendor about this problem.

For more information on the data breach and how you may be affected, please contact Image-I-Nation at: 1-877-296-9970.

For other questions, please contact Joe Kueppers, Chancellor for Civil Affairs, Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis at: 651-291-4405.
