Remembrance Weekend: A Time to Remember

As Catholic's, we are so blessed that the Church recognizes the importance of remembering Jesus' birth, life, death and resurrection. She reminds us throughout the liturgical year that remembering invites us to live in the "Life" that Christ invites us to live. This invitation, a call to "wholeness" and "holiness" gives us hope that our souls will be reunited with our bodies on the last day.

The Church remembers the faithfully departed. These departed persons are our grandparents, parents, siblings, children, relatives, friends and enemies. We mourn the departed because they are no longer physically with us. We experience grief by shock, denial, anger, bargaining, depression, testing and acceptance. Sometimes we experience all stages of grief, sometimes we don't and sometimes we just find ways to survive. However, to ease this grief, we remember our loved ones during the month of November. In faith, we pray and hope that our loved ones receive the fullness of the Life and Light of Christ.

This year, St. Joseph will remember our faithfully departed in a couple of special ways. First, we will be setting up a special space by the Resurrection window where framed photos of departed loved ones will be displayed (please put the person's name along with your contact information on back of frame by November 2nd.) Second, at the 8:30 and 10:30 am liturgy on November 3rd, the liturgy will begin with a sense of somberness and gradually move toward a sense of elevation. For example, the liturgy will begin with a Taize chant and Christian symbols that remind us of our baptism (Easter Candle) and death (The Book of the Dead). We will also sing the Litany of the Saints to "pray for us". Finally, during the recessional song, we will sing an uplifting song to remind us that we too will be with our faithfully departed and enjoy the "Life" that God has called us to live.

As we remember our faithfully departed during the month of November, please know that your Church, St. Joseph, is here for you. If you are experiencing grief, please feel free to reach out to Kyle Finken, our Pastoral Care Coordinator.

PADRE PAUL'S PONDERINGS

Upcoming Synod, Listening Sessions a way for All to Help Archdiocese Plan for Future

Earlier this year, Archbishop Bernard Hebda announced that our archdiocese would be embarking on a synod. It's been a while. The last one was in 1939.

What is a synod? It is a formal representative assembly designed to help a bishop in his shepherding of the local Church. It will draw on every parish in the archdiocese to give input to the Archbishop and Archdiocesan leaders as to what the pastoral priorities should be in the next decade. Archbishop Hebda, in his announcement of the synod, cited Pope John Paul II, who identified a need for new canonical structures to reflect the conciliar teaching that presented the Church as the "People of God" and as a "communion," as well as the doctrine by which "all members of the People of God share, in a manner proper to each of them, in the threefold priestly, prophetic and kingly office of Christ." As such, the Archbishop really wants to have input not just from people at a conference table at the chancery office in Saint Paul, but from all the people he shepherds.

The synod itself will be held Pentecost weekend in May of 2021, and in a nutshell a synod is a formal representative assembly designed to help a bishop in his shepherding of the local church. The purpose of the synod will be to "establish clear pastoral priorities in a way that will both promote greater unity and lead us to a more vigorous proclamation of Jesus' good news." Each parish will have one or two people be selected to be at this Synod.

Coming up first through this fall into next spring will be listening sessions throughout the archdiocese. At these events, participants will gather together to pray, discuss, and give feedback on what is working well now in their parish and this Archdiocese, and what are the challenges and opportunities as we move forward together. The archbishop is scheduled to attend all of the events to pray and participate in the listening process. Coming up on Friday, November 15, there will be a listening session at All Saints in Lakeville from 6 to 9 p.m.
The full list of listening sessions can be found here online: https://www.archspm.org/synod.

I really have to commend the archbishop for his leadership in setting up the synod process. He has a ton of experience as a leader in our Church, and certainly would be within his rights to arbitrarily set about implementing new policies for the archdiocese in terms of restructuring parishes and schools or changing the operations of the archdiocese or services provided. But instead, he's opted to take the time to go out across the archdiocese to hear directly from the people, together formulating a pastoral plan. He's also graciously set up time to hear from priests too at a separate listening session. He truly personifies what a servant leader is all about.

If you can't make the listening session, please pray for the sessions, the Synod and all involved. Following is a prayer for the year of Pre-Synod Prayer and Listening:

Come Holy Spirit
Make our ears to hear
Make our eyes to see
Make our mouths to speak
Make our hearts to seek
Make our hands to reach out
And touch the world with your love.
AMEN.

Mary, Mother of the Church,
Pray for us.

Also a big "thank you" to those involved in promoting the Synod in our own parish, our ambassador team of Joan Somes, Becky Zuege, Bill Casurella and Mandy Grayson.

Have a blessed week! ~Fr. Paul

SYNOD 2021
ARCHDIOCESE OF SAINT PAUL & MINNEAPOLIS

Archbishop Bernard Hebda wants to hear from you!

You know what's working and what needs work in your parish and this Archdiocese. This is your opportunity to help shape the future of our local Church.

There are 20 Prayer and Listening Events located throughout the Archdiocese over the next several months. Archbishop Hebda plans to attend all 20 events to hear from each of you - what is going well, and what needs to be fixed. All opinions submitted will be reviewed. The nearest listening session will be:

Friday, Nov. 15, 6-9 p.m.
All Saints, Lakeville

- Please see Synod posters and flyers for other dates and locations near St. Joe's over the next several months.
- Please pray the Pre-Synod prayer for the success of the synod

See Archbishop Hebda's June 6 column in The Catholic Spirit at www.archspm.org/synod.

Parish Director's Corner 11/3/2019

Our Parishioners and Community enjoy seeing the beautiful grounds at St. Joseph. Currently we have a company that mows, trims, fertilizes and takes care of the sprinkler system. We would like to take this to another level and that is where you come in! We will have many opportunities to be a part of the newly formed Outside Environment Committee (OEC). Whether you like designing possibilities, trimming low hanging branches, clearing wild plants or working with others to make our campus even more beautiful, you can get a sense of fulfillment by being a part of the OEC. Anyone interested or has questions, please contact the parish office 651-423-4402 or look on the web site under "There's A Place For You Here"/"Adults".

Thank you for considering this ministry.

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. Today begins National Vocation Awareness Week. During this week, please pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply. Encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or consecrated life.
